

ALIGN DIVINE CLASS 4

Hi, this is Stacey Mayo of www.thesentelligentsolution.com, and this is Align With The Divine and this is Session Four.

We are excited to be here again today with you. We want to do a little bit of a recap of where we've been and where we are going. That's the first thing we do each time. Last time we talked about having things flow and going past the lulls. What we have been doing is looking with you at the intentions that you have set silently or perhaps you have sent them up to Source or Mary. Either way, we are sensing in to what it is you desire and what is in your way, to assist you in going beyond the lulls and having things flow.

You already may be noticing where things are flowing more. We have been activating you at the next level of wealth consciousness that you are open to. I want to say a little bit more about what this actually means. Often times we say we want something such as we want a certain amount of money or we want a certain size home at a certain dollar value or a certain job at a certain salary.

The idea of it feels really good, consciously. But subconsciously or in some other way, there is some resistance to having that level of wealth, be it physical manifestation or financial manifestation. This can be very, very, very frustrating. Sometime we feel like there is a cap. We may have thoughts like: I've been at this level so long, what is it? Or I try to go up and I go down. There are many, many, many things that affect our ability to have that which we desire in physical form at a certain, let's say dollar or financial amount, associated with it.

Wealth consciousness is what we consider an important foundation because you must be open to receiving at that level on all planes so to speak. You may say, "Well, I think I am." But as law of attraction says, "If you think you are open to receiving, but you haven't," then there is something in your way. As we open up your wealth consciousness, you may start to get hits of, maybe I'm afraid of making more money than my parents did. Or its not okay for me to make more than a man. Or it could be many, many, many things.

When we open up your wealth consciousness, you start to understand that there are what may seem like silly things, or not so silly things, that have been in your way. It doesn't mean those can't be healed. And of course, all parts of you has to be in alignment to heal it. So when something comes up to your consciousness, you can look at it and be with it, and say, "Hmmm, I see this. And I'm okay with it." Or, "I want to shift this." Or, "I have mixed feelings about it." If you want to shift it, intend to do so and to allow all of you to align with it. Then let go.

As your wealth consciousness and your consciousness continue to open up in this program, you will have better understanding. Sometimes you might just say, "You know, I see what's in my way. Maybe I really want something different than what I thought I wanted." If so, then allow it to be. This may happen and often happens with things you've been trying to manifest with no success. You may find maybe I really don't want it. I thought I did. I thought it was the right thing to do or what I need to do. And so it is. Allow us to support you in just being where you are.

You may find that you have intentions for what you want to manifest and that may very well happen in this program or it may not. You may realize maybe I'm not really ready or that's not really what I want. But instead some other things come to fruition that surprise and delight you. Allow and notice. And allow it to be Divine and perfect. Because if you end up going for something you don't really want, you may find yourself perhaps unhappy. Wow, I manifested that, but I wish I didn't. You may have experienced that in the past.

Getting clarity on what you really want is extremely, extremely important. Today's class is about that. Getting clarity in alignment with who you are in this time and space. Why do we say in this time and space? Because again there can be things in your field from other times when you pledged to do something a certain way. Perhaps it was follow what the Gods had in store for you. Perhaps it was put your career first at all costs. Or put your relationship first at all costs. These are pledges. You may find yourself thinking perhaps I have pledge or pledged to do something or vowed to do something or have some attachment to something that doesn't really work for me.

If you would like to accept some energy to support you, we will call it a "accept where you are energy" or not really an activation, but energy to support you in being where you are then we will do that this evening while you sleep. And so it is. All you to do is say yes and it will start this evening while you sleep. We find that to be the best time for many energies. And so it is.

If you had something come up that you would like support with right now like, "I've been wanting something but it's not happening." And you are either getting a hit like I think this why and you would like some support around it, or you don't know and you would like some support around that, hit *2.

Stacey: Ayako, you are on.

Ayako: Hi, Stacey!

Stacey: By the way, I got your email and I just want you to know that I got it and I apologize for not having responded yet.

Ayako: Thank you so much, I appreciate that recognition.

Stacey: What can we support you in today?

Ayako: I'm not sure we've spoken about it, but I'm sure we've spoken about this definitely before. I have still not manifested a job, income, money, those kind of things. I keep opening myself up and I'm allowing everything to move at its own pace. I'm not pushing. But I'm still not generating any income and that's definitely something I would like to see.

Stacey: Sure. I know last time that we mentioned that there was this desire to have someone else support you financially. In the meantime you are saying "I need income."

Ayako: Yes. I guess I do. I have somebody supporting me I'm actually living with my family right now so I'm definitely being supported and I'm open to that. Their energy is very much, "You need a job. You need to make money." Those kind of things. Just allowing myself to accept being taken care of but at the same time not kind of take on their energy.

Stacey: Their energy, which is encouraging you to go get a job?

Ayako: Yes, to create income, more money or anything else.

Stacey: So you are doing your best to accept the situation. Accepting it doesn't mean you don't want something else, also. It's being okay with where you are in the moment and you can still want something else, okay? Let us look with you. Because there could very well be some attachment or vow that you are not aware of that is having you be we would say frustrated while trying to accept. And feeling energies pushing you this way or that.

As we look at you, my cherub, what we see is that there is from another time and space, "I vow to allow someone to support me financially. And I vow to do it unconditionally without question. For it is what I want. And I've never been able to have it. I think I would like that life. It would be a life of joy and bliss and I like being domestic." And so it is.

There is a string of intentions from other times and space. But there is something else. There is from another time, where you intended to be financially very, very successful. The word baroness came forward from your field. We have intentions set from different times and space that are, you might say maybe they are not conflicting, but the one that we see is where it was based solely upon your own effort.

You can see, there is this conflict in your field. Solely on your own efforts, financial baroness type then there is this other string of to allow someone else to totally take care of you. There is something else showing itself. But you can already see there is conflict. And none of it is from this time and space. This is why it's important to align with you who are in this time and space. It is difficult to do this when you have all this other stuff pulling on you not in your consciousness.

As we continue to look, what we see is there is another piece showing itself that I want to close. I want to be able to make money, support myself, not be dependent on anyone, but have another one who can be someone who makes money. What was see is this leaning towards balance. It seems to be coming from who you are later in your evolution. Whereas the other ones seem to be coming from longer ago.

What comes up for you about this, Ayako?

Ayako: It definitely resonates with me. I completely accept and understand it. I am willing to release certain aspects of it. I do want to release all of it that is meant to be released for my higher good. But in attempting to live now, how or where can I support myself more in this moment rather than my previous lifetimes or experiences and my future lifetimes and experiences? How do I create those things, or meld those things together in the present moment?

Stacey: If you will allow us to release benign those old vows, pledges and intentions, then you can create from who you are today. From a much clearer slate. Does that make sense?

Ayako: Yes.

Stacey: We see these pledges and vows and we ask you to give us carte blanche, if you want to, to just release them without having to talk through it each. When you do that, we scan for what is involved do it when it is able to be done with ease and not upset the apple cart. Some of you had said yes, but we have found that there is other things pulling at you that have it be hard to release.

So, we will continue to look further and scan further for those of you with vows we haven't been able to release. We believe if we scan further, with the help of Source, we will be able to see 100 percent of it and clear it up more easily without it having to come to consciousness like it just did. If you allow us, we will do that for all who silently say yes. We'll scan further to find 100 percent. And so it is. It may take sometimes two weeks. Sometimes not. We've done scanning for all you of, but for those we haven't seen 100 percent, we will have source scan for 100 percent.

Ayako: Thank you.

Stacey: If you will just let go and let God, and intend for us to see 100 percent, we will do our best to benign, release or transform 100 percent of that which is in the way of you creating wealth in a way that works for who you really are today. For you to know who you really are, this stuff has to be gone. Okay?

Ayako: Yes, I feel like that is the one thing.

Stacey: It just pulls at you and it's confusing. That is what we will do. We will do that for all who desire just silently say yes and that is what we will do. Thank you.

Okay we have a caller from last four digits 4682 – who is on the line?

Archanaa: Hi Stacey, Archanaa here.

Stacey: Hi!

Archanaa: I couldn't resist putting my hand up. What you were saying with needing so much, especially a blanket, all the background and the history and what has been happening in 2014. I've been trying to figure out how to bring out my medical intuitive services again this year. But there has always been some distraction or another or there is always something else coming up. It's been really tugging and distracting and pulling at different angles. What is it I still need to know or clear up before I can resume? Because I'm really missing it. I can feel such a difference in my own self when I do it versus when I don't do it. I'm really longing to go back to it, but it's just been very distracting and too many conflicting priorities.

Stacey: For your medical intuitive work, you've had a hard time going back to it. As we look at your field, we see that there is this strong desire and love for this work for many eons. There is this attachment to pleasing and pleasing and pleasing. There is a big thing about, "I have to please the Gods by being the best in my field and helping as many people as possible. I have to please my husband and my family by being the best I can be for them. I have to please my mentor," and so on.

As we look at this need to please, it comes from many places. It causes a lot of conflict because first of all, where is Archanaa in all of this? We don't see anything about needing to please yourself in here. It's like that was left out. We're not suggesting that you make a new vow. But just think about what would be possible if you didn't have to please the Gods. If you didn't have to please your husband and family at the risk of your own happiness.

That's how strong it is in there. We all want to be there for our family. But when we say please in your field, it's like they come first. He comes first. He comes first. He comes first. We're seeing about 90 percent of that. If you will allow us to scan for all of it, and allow us to transform that into something that will allow you to choose in ways that truly work for you and your family, because I think that's what you want. Is that right?

Archanaa: Sure. In fact, a part of what you are saying feels like an extension of the victim portion I feel a lot of being held. But I think this is the other aspect of it that it's been unconscious but makes so much sense as you say it.

Stacey: Good. So it's resonating with you.

Archanaa: When you said, "If I didn't have to please," felt liberating.

Stacey: Ah, feels liberating not to have to please! Good! We want to say that someone could go to the other side of the fence and just be very egocentric. Of course we know that's not what you want. Who you really are is not that. Who you really are is Divine love. Divine love includes love for self. We will scan to find 100 percent of all related to this and we see we have your permission to do that, and transform so that you can create what you want in a way that works for you today. Okay?

Archanaa: Yes, sure! Definitely, thank you!

Stacey: You're very welcome. Thank you for the question.

The need to please is big for people. Really not just for women. That may resonate with many of you. Just know that if it does, you can silently raise your hand and we will look at how to support you in that as well. You don't have to raise your hand physically in this class. Just silently and we will scan for that. Then we are not really aligning with our true nature. Again, it's not about being egocentric. I think about the airplane where they say, "In the event of a crash or whatever, put the mask over your face first." It's the same kind of thing. When you take care of yourself first and intend for that which is in the highest and best of all, then it is. You could say intend for win/win. Which is a good way of looking at it, also. And so it is.

We have one more hand up, but we want to go ahead and continue with some information and then come back to the question. We are doing this in Divine order. So hang in there with us. And we have one question that came in, and I actually want to go ahead and answer that question that came in, it's in Divine order, so please trust.

The question came from Ursula. She has a several part question. It's very interesting. She wanted to know if her wealth attunement was accepted or at least half of it. You are accepting the wealth activation, wealth consciousness activation. Not really an attunement, but yes. You are accepting it Divinely and it continues over time. So you are doing fine with that, Ursula. We are sharing this with you. We know in the past you haven't but you are. Know that you are.

She said, "I had a dream that I won the Publisher's Clearing House. First time ever having a dream like that. Then my ex-husband shows up with a sleazy lawyer to take half of it away." We say, "Okay." I think that's why you asked if you have received half of the wealth consciousness. This is a fear that you can't have your own money. And we will continue to scan for all of that because obviously your ex-husband shouldn't be able to take that away. So there is something about knowing that what's yours is yours to do with as you desire. And there is something in your field that says, "I have to give it away. It's not okay to keep it." There are a lot of attachments there that we will scan for and see what we can find for you. I will intend to find 100 percent of all related.

Then she said, "You said during the wealth consciousness activation information that I thought I would have a man want me if I had money. That is superficially true, and underneath there is a need to know if there is someone that will take care of me. There is a deep need for needing to feel safe and protected here on this planet." Similarly, there are old attachments having to have a man take care of you and not being able to keep your own money so we will look at all of this.

You said, "Regarding fear and attachment, we had found 98 percent," but she feels the last two percent are an attachment to her ex-husband. We would say there likely is, and you're intuition is generally right on. We will look at what attachments there to your ex-husband and money. We believe you are right on the money, as usual, Ursula. We will absolutely look there. We will scan for 100 percent of what you are asking for. Just let go and let God.

Again, in this program it's about getting clear on what you want from a clean slate. Sometimes you may think you know what you want, and then when it feels like it's not manifesting very well or movement isn't happening, we suggest that you just kick it upstairs to us and allow Source to scan for 100 percent of what's in the way of you getting clarity. Because if you are not manifesting, there is likely something in the way of either it manifesting or you getting clarity on what you really want. We will continue doing that Divinely for each of you.

The wealth consciousness activation is continuing. It will continue throughout the entire course of this program and probably for a month beyond. So know that.

I also wanted to touch base about the other kinds of attachments, spiritual parasite, spiritual attachments, entities and such that a good number of you have. We are working diligently from a high level to strengthen your energy field for everyone whom it is relevant, which seems to be relevant for about 90 percent of you. And repair and heal the issues related to any problems with entities, spiritual attachments and so forth. The process is going well.

There is a suggestion, and if it is right for you, you will be led. For some of you it will help for you to do some cleansing. If it is right for you, trust that you will get a hit to either take an Epsom salt bath every few days or an ion foot bath or perhaps even get massages. If it is so, and you get a hit that this is right for me and this is the right way to do it for me, we highly encourage you to follow it. That will help in when there is a lot of gunk in your field, it weakens your energy bodies and can cause you to continue to not feel well. Or have one thing after another.

If that is the case for you, the likelihood is that some cleansing will be helpful beyond the cleansing from Source. We think you will recognize if that is right for you. If you have questions, certainly let us know. But the healing is continuing Divinely. This will help some of you. We would say about 20 percent of you or more, this will be helpful for. Do it if it seems right for you.

Everyone just be.

Now we have another question from someone with the last four digits 1287. You are on the line.

Linda: Hi, Stacey!

Stacey: Hi, who is this?

Linda: This is Linda.

Stacey: Hi, Linda!

Linda: Good to be talking with you. I don't know if you remember my history.

Stacey: I do. I do.

Linda: When I was taking the medical intuitive I felt very strongly that was my path; that was my calling. And then you know the issues that have arisen. I had pretty much set things up so that the work that I normally do was being reduced and that I would have the ability to devote my time to a medical intuitive practice. Of course you know the conflict came up and then what happened at the beginning of last year is that everything that I had set up for the opening went 180 degree reverse and now I'm having to work full time in the other. I haven't really felt, having nothing to do with medical intuitiveness, I guess I'm just really feeling confused. I'm not sure what I should be doing. I've just been trying to go with the flow. But part of me is saying, "But you're not supposed to be doing that. You're supposed to be doing the intuitive work." And yet, I'm not feeling that draw. I'm just kind of swimming. Which is why I'm taking this class. I was wondering if you could come in and help me out there – give me some guidance.

Stacey: Whenever we say we're supposed to be doing something that's a sign also. Just notice that "supposed to be" thing, okay? Often times I will say that our purpose is that strong. I'm supposed to be doing this. Obviously, Linda, it is that strong in your field. I've known you for some time. You had challenges with the medical intuitive training and it took a lot to work through them. If it hadn't been that strong in your field you would have let go.

So you got to a place of opening up a practice and then it didn't happen.

Linda: Stacey, I didn't get to the place of opening up the practice. Because you said that I had created too much blockage and I'm thinking that's still being worked out because I never go there.

Stacey: Okay, I misunderstood you. There is something strong in your field. I've seen it with others. It's called "What was bestowed upon you was blessings and protection from the Gods that you never do anything again that would cause you to be slain." What we have found is that energy from the Gods obviously you can tell that was a long time ago, is powerful. Often it was done with a group who blessed together, chanted together, and called upon the Gods as a group to keep you safe.

This is something we have come to understand is able to be healed over time. At first we thought it wasn't. As we have gone along, we have found that it is and we went to a very high level. As we look at your field from a very, very, very high level, which is what is needed, the information is that there were it looks like thousands of blessings bestowed upon you of protection from the Gods. To transform those blessings it takes God of our understanding in these times to relinquish with the "Gods" did in those times.

But it's not just what the Gods did. It's that ancestors and kin and folks have attachments to it staying in place. It's like all those attachments have to be loosened as well. As we look at your field, there is, "Please! Will you PLEASE just finally just get this stuff off of me?" We say, "Yes, we will." And we are seeing 89 percent of it at this time. We do need to see 100 percent. And we have done this for others and so trust that we can. Hopefully this will be the last of it for you. We cannot say for sure.

There is that and there is something else. But this is a very big piece that until recently, until we were able to get to this highest level of information we didn't know it could be undone. And we have found it can. When we worked with you before, Linda, this was not seen and then it was seen. And pieces were healed. It's like it remains hidden. So what we have learned is we have to go to a very, very high levels of Divine intuitive sight to be able to have a knowing that these blessings are in place. Because they don't show physically like in a scan. It takes a very high level of knowing to get 100 percent of that. I would say see 100 percent of it, but not with eyes so to speak, with Divine sight is what it would be called.

That's where we are in our work on this. We see you are very willing and that's what we will do for you. Okay, Linda?

Linda: Thank you, Stacey. Am I misguided in thinking that it's this time I'm to be a healer? Is it going to take a few more lifetimes to clear this? Am I out of time sync?

Stacey: Let go of all of that. Let go of all of that. That is just cord thing that can't be undone. From a very high level we say set the intention. You have a choice. You can set the intention that this can be healed in this time and space. Or you can let go and do something else. And if it gets healed, it gets healed. That might help some. You already are working at something else. There seems to be more loosening when you do let go of it having to happen in this time and space. There is something in your field that says it has to happen in this time and space and that's another conflict. Let us just untangle all of that, okay?

Linda: Yes, thank you.

Stacey: You're welcome. There's like both of those in your field – it can't happen and it has to happen. It can drive a person nutty. No, you aren't nutty. It's just old stuff, okay?

Linda: Okay, thank you.

Stacey: You're welcome. And so it is.

So you can see that is why I have given up the word self-sabotage altogether. Because so many times we say, "I must be in my own way." When it's not you. It's not who you Divinely are that is in your own way. It is stuff in your field that you vowed or pledged, or other people pledged upon you, out of love. Out of protection. Out of compassion. Do your best not to be mad with those who did what they thought was in your highest and best. Try not to vow or pledge anything forever, because in some other time and space you may be really sorry for it. Because we all change. When we say "forever," we don't realize what eternity is. How long the impact can be. So you may want to watch your words about those things.

And so, my cherubs. This is where we are on this Class Four of getting clarity from this time and space, who you are in this time and space. As we continue to clear away the stuff that was set in place from other times and space so that you can create your life for who you really are in this time. And so it is.

Again, allow for manifestations to happen that delight and surprise you. Make sure and listen to the manifesting meditation daily or ask to receive the energy of it daily. It will help. Let go of attachments to how your manifestation has to look or what has to manifest. Because if it feels difficult, it likely means there is junk in the way that is not you.

We are going to end with a blessing. And so it is.

We send you love. And we send you peace. And we send you joy. We send you compassion from our hearts to yours. And ask that you be compassionate with yourself with a knowing that all is well. You are receiving Divine assistance and you are powerful beyond belief. Allow yourself to let go, accept and be surprised and delighted. And so it is. And we bless you with wonderment, with curiosity and with joy. As you learn about how things have come to be, bless the Divine unfolding, Divine disentanglement, that will support you in ways that are perfect for the here and now. And so it is.

Are there any parting thoughts, or if any of you have noticed something that has shown itself in your life that you would like to share with us and celebrate and have us celebrate with you, hit *2.

What we encourage you to do, because we are seeing some things come up for many of you that could pop any time now that may or may not be what you intended for, so be open to what just might delight you and celebrate it and share it. For it is on the way and know that it is. Let go of any attachment to it. And so it is.

We're going to end with a "Woo Hoo" to raise our vibration up. In a moment I'm going to put it on interactive and I'm going to count to three and at three I ask that we all allow out a couple of "Woo Hoo's" to raise our vibration. It's a great way – I encourage you to "Woo Hoo" in your life as much as it feels good to do. It's a very good feeling.

One, two, three...

ALL: WOO HOO!

Thank you, thank you guys! We will connect again next week. Have a blessed week!
